The journey home was broken with an afternoon's bowls at Wotton-under-Edge who very kindly laid on food on arrival and a very welcome tea after the game. Again it was a most enjoyable afternoon playing on a well maintained green.

Tim Stacey's four on Rink1 showed signs of being weary after the tour and never got started finishing on a 5-18 loss. On Rink2 Jack Lafford was pulled back from 5-2 at the 7th end to be 5-6 down at the 9th end but 14 shots to 5 shots on the remaining ends resulted in a 21-11 win. John Hurren's four on Rink3 found themselves 9-13 down at the 13th end from being 8-6 up at the 9th end but then took 18 unanswered shots to end on 27-13 and winning rink. On Rink4 Bob Parker moved from 2-2 at the 3rd end to 10-2 at the 6th end then kept in front to win 20-12. Steve Gould's winning tour sequence came to an end on Rink4 and, although pulling back to 7-8 at the 10th end then scored 7 shots against 12 shots to finish down 14-20. Rink6 never saw Paul Barrow going behind, picking up shots throughout the afternoon running out winning 19-9.
